Penn Medicine CME & IPCE Advisory Council

Penn Medicine IPCE Advisory Council
The Penn IPCE Advisory Council provides strategic guidance to the leadership of the IPCE Program and alignment with other relevant centers and programs in education, research, faculty professional development, quality and safety, and leadership across the educational and clinical continuum.
It provides perspectives on programmatic needs and reviews goals and resources needed; members serve as ambassadors for IPCE and CME across the institution.
They recommend/endorse new policies and organizational structures to support Penn CME and IPCE.
